

Hello team 3 parents,

I hope you all had a great weekend! I wanted to make you aware of a few things that are starting this week that will be recurring each week.

This week we will start 20/20's where students will be required to read 20 pages or for 20 minutes 4 nights a week and respond to one of the prompts. This year I am having them do this in their planner. They will have the requirements glued into their planner and will be expected to turn in their planners on Fridays. Please make sure they are reading at their level and not below their level.

We are also starting vocabulary study this week. They will receive their words today and be expected to know the definition (not spelling) every Friday. We will practice using these words and definitions on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays. Please make sure they are practicing at home as well! A new word list will come out every week there is a full week of school.

Don't forget that this Thursday is back to school bonanza and I hope to see you all there. It will run from 6-8pm and includes free dinner!

I hope this week is a great one for you! God's Blessings!
