

Team 1 Homenote

AnchorPoint Christian School

2/13/2016

Dear Parents,

Our 100's Day collections are hanging outside our room. They are fun to look at and see how different they look.

Tomorrow is our Valentine's Day exchange. We will be decorating bags to take home the cards we receive. Please make sure that your child has the cards signed before bringing them to school.

This week Wednesday there will be a baked goods sale to raise funds for the Girls on the Run team. Students may purchase 2 items during recess break. Everything will be 50¢.

Thank you for your donations of animal crackers and pretzels. The kids appreciate these snacks.

Team 1 Information

A look at our week

In Bible we are creating a booklet of the miracles of Jesus. The Bible verse is due this week Wednesday. This week in Math the Youngers will take a look at strategies to help in solving subtraction problems. The Olders will have a review and test this week. The new unit information will be coming home today. In literacy work we are continuing our work on writing paragraphs. We will use the sentences to create an information text page. Informational text uses pictures, charts, and other features to present information. In Social Studies this week we will find out about the services a community government provides. We will also discuss "common good" and "individual rights".

Please feel free to contact me with any questions that may arise.
