

Good Morning!

Can you believe it is almost February? Time is flying and all the students are working hard! I wanted to update you on what is coming up this next month. I am working on giving everyone an update on grades by the end of the week since the end of the Trimester will be February 23, I want to give all students a chance to raise any grades ahead of time. As always if you have any questions please feel free to message me.

Bible test and Bible memory (John 14:1-14) is this Wednesday (1/31)! Please encourage students to study! We have been studying Jesus's death and will be working on his resurrection after the test.

NED assembly has been rescheduled for 2/13 from 12:45-1:30. Hopefully the snow won't keep this great yo-yo show away again!

Our next Social Studies test will be on 2/15. We are studying early American settlers.

No School 2/19 or 2/20 for mid winter break.

End of 2nd Trimester 2/23.

Field trip to the Symphony on 2/23

Hearing and Vision Screening 2/27 and 2/28.

We are currently in the process of writing a compare and contrast paper in English as well as reading Number the Stars! be sure to ask your students about it!

I hope everyone is enjoying the mild-ish winter we are having so far. Have a great Monday!
Mr. Harris
