

KINDERGARTEN CONNECTION

November 17, 2017

This is the home note for both this week and next week, since we only have 2 school days next week. I hope you have a wonderful Thanksgiving Break and enjoy some family time. May God bless!

BIBLE:

Our stories this week were about the plagues God sent on Egypt to show that He is the Lord. We will be finishing our plague books next week with the 10th plague and Jewish Passover.

Gg: Go into all the world and preach the Good News to all creation.

Cc: Call upon Me and pray to Me and I will listen to you.

MATH:

We are still working on the "teens". We have been practicing writing them, too

LANGUAGE ARTS/SCIENCE:

Our social studies unit this week was the 1st Thanksgiving in America. We talked about the pilgrims coming over to the "New World", the hard winter, help from the Native Americans, and the celebration of Thanksgiving. Next week we will wrap up any last details and focus on giving thanks to the One who gives it all!!

This week was Gg. Next week (2 days) will be a review. After Thanksgiving, our letter will be Dd.

We continue to work on using our letter sounds to sound out new words. Please

SCRAPBOOK HOMEWORK: Dd (due after break, but you can send them next week if you prefer)

OTHER NOTES:

November Book-Its : Please keep reading😊!
