

Team 1 Homenote

AnchorPoint Christian School

9/18/2017

Dear Parents,

This week Friday we have an all school field trip. We will be outside participating in an event at the public museum. The kids will have the opportunity to make something in regards to Art Prize. Please make sure to dress for the weather. We will leave at 9:10 and return by 10:50.

The first book orders went home last week. As you look for books notice the last lines under each book. There are letters and numbers listed. The GRL set of letters is what I look at. A beginning reader should be looking at books with a GRL letter of A-F. GRL stands for Guided Reading Level. The books I use during our group reading time are all leveled this way. I would like the book orders in by Friday, September 22. You can order on line by going to scholastic.com/bookclubs. Order with our class code GYMKF.

Wednesday is our first popcorn and snack sale day. If your child brings money please put it in a bag or envelope with their name. Lost money is never a good thing. Popcorn, juice are each 25 cents. Snacks are 50cents each. Your child may get one of each with $1.00.

A look at our week

In Bible we will learn about Adam and Eve. The choice they made affects us all, but God made a promise. Math-The Youngers will finish their first unit with a review. Please look for the Family letter to explain our new unit. The Olders will take a look at calculators and counting patterns. During our literacy work we have been working hard on all the parts of Daily 5. Building reading stamina has been a focus too. We are up to 7 minutes of silent reading as a class. In our Social Studies lessons we will be talking about the things families do for each other. Together we: love, work, care for, eat, play, and meet each other's needs.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions that may arise.
